Citywide rent control is a frontier of civil rights. Shelter should not be monetized to a point where people live without this basic necessity. Now is the time to boldly act, thoughtful of our future, no longer paralyzed by our fears of what may come. Our neighbors are facing critical housing challenges, possibly homelessness. We see many local businesses empty without customers; we are forced to shop cheaply online, or reluctantly in discount department stores. I believe the suffering of the renter is more widespread than what is being acknowledged. The City of Long Beach can adopt regulations and ordinances to govern a landlord's right to set and increase rental rates, while continuing to uphold a landlord's right to a fair rate of return on a property. Statistically and politically there are many ways to quantify and categorize our renting neighbor's financial and social burden. In the end, we must acknowledge the injustice. We can be visionaries, furthering our continued mission of equality for all. With me as mayor, The City of Long Beach will adopt citywide rent control. We will not be swayed from fear and make the city stronger for all.

Occupation: International Trade Specialist, Small Business Owner
For Long Beach City Council, District 3

Qualifications:

- 30 year Long Beach resident
- 23 year experience as a small business owner
- Community non-profit advocate, activist and volunteer
- City of Long Beach Sustainable City Commission (2009-2014)

Do you feel like elected leaders do not listen to you, that your concerns don't matter? Are you bothered when government decisions are made to benefit special interests and not the people of Long Beach? It really bothers me, and I am running for Council to put the people of Long Beach first.

Recently, hundreds of Long Beach residents came out, raising concerns about a land-use planning process that will benefit deep-pocketed developers and change the character of our neighborhoods forever, and our leaders did not listen.

As a Council person I will strive to include the people of Long Beach in the decision-making process, make the City budget and taxes transparent, and work with the Council to do what is best for the people of Long Beach. As a community advocate I have seen how community outreach and transparency benefits residents, and results in better projects for all.

A vote for Gordana is a vote for YOUR voice and YOUR vision.

STACY MUNGO

Age: 36

Occupation: Long Beach Councilmember / Educator

As your Councilwoman and life-long neighbor, I've dedicated myself to improving the 5th District.

Over the last four years, we've made tremendous progress. Our District has broken records:

- Repaving/repairing more streets (86 @ 2.2 million sqft), replacing more sidewalks (52,721 sqft), and patching more potholes/sidewalks (12,066/875) than ever before
- Added 2,079 jobs and 726 businesses,
- And resolved 10,141 neighbor requests.

We have graduated 172 police officers and 72 firefighters, and decreased neighborhood crime by 18.4% and citywide crime by 11.4%.

We've turned things around and I'm running to keep them moving in the right direction:

- Ensure police have every resource they need to keep our neighborhoods safe.
- Allocate every dollar available for street and sidewalk repair.
- Fight against density to preserve our neighborhood character.
- Continue to work with County leaders to tackle homelessness.

Above all, I promise to listen and be your voice and your advocate for our neighborhoods. I respectfully ask for your vote so we can keep working together to make our District, and our City even better.

I am running for City Council to restore an independent voice for 5th District neighborhoods that will represent you, not city hall. As a former Harbor Commissioner, I have a record of Fiscal Responsibility, Transparency and Job Creation at the Port of Long Beach

Putting our neighborhoods first!

CORLISS G. LEE
For Council District 5
Community Advocate

Dear Voter,

As a resident of Long Beach Plaza neighborhood for 24 years, I share your concerns about the direction our City is taking regarding:

- Increasing sales and property taxes without accountability
- Changing density allowed in our neighborhoods
- Refusing to be transparent in decision making
- Allowing special interests to have more and more influence

This must stop and that's why I am running to represent the 5th District.

Over the past several years, many of you worked with me on efforts to:

- Protect the quality of life in our neighborhoods by stopping excessive airport development
- Promote environmentally responsible projects
- Inform residents of the Land Use Element that threatens changing our City's character

For over 20 years, I managed aerospace finance and material operations, which prepared me to represent taxpayers as the City grapples with self-inflicted deficits.

As I walk the 5th District, you've told me you want a council member who will:

- Demand responsible fiscal management
- Protect our neighborhoods
- Keep our streets in good repair
- Increase government transparency
- Give residents a voice in decisions being made

I would be honored to have your vote.

For LB Council District #5

I'll state the obvious, Long Beach is a great place to live, work and play, for everyone! Our region is fortunate to contain an inter-modal network for commerce and consequently jobs. Our place in this zone is the hub of that activity. With that inevitably comes growth and needs for the families doing the work in the first place. The 5th District is the largest homogenous single family dwelling zone within all of LB and as such needs protections that enhance and not compromise neighborhood character. We have the western edge of our district as the airport, LBCC, Mercedes among others with good capacity for growth, but sensitive to where people live and where their schools and churches are. Our public finances are a tangled web that needs fresh eyes. I will give the job the hours and attention it deserves and promise transparency and access. My combination of experience in the Army and the private sector especially as a business owner of many years sets me apart. Let's not risk public safety and infrastructure needs over poor spending decisions. I will not vote for density.

ROBERTO URANGA

Occupation: Long Beach City Councilmember

It's been an honor and privilege to serve as your Councilmember for the last four years. As a 35-year resident of our district, I'm incredibly proud of the progress we have made in such a short time.

As your Councilmember, I've worked to:

- Ensure historic levels of services to improve our streets, sidewalks, and neighborhoods.
- Hire 40 more police officers and 30 firefighters to keep neighborhoods safe.
- Deliver balanced budgets and responsibly manage our tax dollars.
- Re-institute the senior meals program at Silverado Park.
- Make significant improvements to Admiral Kidd, Los Cerritos and Silverado Parks.
- Re-establish the wetlands at Willow Springs Park and provide funding to create a visitor center and nature pathways.

I retired from the City of Long Beach after 28 years of service as a Recruitment Officer, Police Impounds Manager, and Administrative Officer. I previously served on the Long Beach City College Board of Trustees where I helped to create the College Promise tuition-free program. I currently serve as a member of the California Coastal Commission, which works to ensure coastal access and protection.

Please don't hesitate to contact me at (562) 200-9828 or Roberto@RobertoUranga.com if you have any questions.

I would appreciate your vote.

For Long Beach City Council District 7

I am an entrepreneur, non-profit leader, public interest lawyer, and filmmaker. Born in New York City, I was raised by a single mother and educated in public schools. I am a proud descendant of Jewish immigrants.

I previously worked for President Barack Obama and started a non-profit organization to help low and middle income families afford legal services. For two decades, I have advocated for numerous social causes, including LGBTQ equality, animal welfare, environmental protection, and healthcare reform. Recently, I developed technology-based programs that provide career and educational opportunities for underserved youth in California.

I'm running for City Council to bring a new generation of leadership to City Hall. From Cal Heights to Wrigley to the Westside, I want everyone to be heard in our government. District 7 needs a dedicated, innovative leader who will promote thriving small businesses, protect environmental health for our children and families, and support safe, affordable places to live and work. We need new ideas, a fresh perspective, and a strong voice to serve our entire district.

I'm proud to call Long Beach home with my husband, Nate, and our adopted dog, Oliver.

For Long Beach City Council District 7

As an active, engaged, and concerned resident and homeowner, I am running for City Council because I want to better represent the needs of our diverse district and work together to improve our quality of life.

I am passionate about finding solutions to problems that impact people most in need. After graduating from Claremont McKenna College and earning my MBA from George Washington University, I have spent the bulk of my career helping nonprofit organizations, universities, and children's hospitals fundraise and promote their missions.

My vision for the 7th District is centered on three core priorities:

- Housing affordability
- Safe and vibrant streets
- A clean and healthy environment

By investing in the long-term success of our neighborhoods, we will ensure our communities are more resilient and future generations have greater opportunities to prosper.

Living in the 7th District, together with my wife Elsa and our dog Winter, has only deepened my commitment to serving my community, demonstrated by my current advocacy for pedestrian and bicycle safety in Central, North, and West Long Beach.

As Councilmember, I will continue to work alongside community leaders to fight for better job opportunities, stronger families, and more livable neighborhoods.

North Long Beach is a great community with great neighborhoods. My wife and I are proud to raise our daughters in this community.

That's why I've worked hard for the past four years as your Councilmember to enhance our quality of life, make city hall more responsive to our needs, and keep public safety a top priority.

I'm proud of what we have accomplished together:

- Made our streets safer by restoring vital public safety services including Paramedic Rescue 12, reducing response times in North Long Beach by 3 minutes.
- Historic investments into our streets, sidewalks, and facilities, including the new Michelle Obama Neighborhood Library.
- Supported our youth by recognizing Jordan High Graduates with street banners, scholarships, and by providing second chances to at-risk youth.
- Improved our corridors with new murals, LED street lights, bike lanes, and more.
- Enhanced our parks with fitness stations, expanding the DeForest Wetlands, and the new Houghton Park Community Center, coming this Spring.

The change we've seen in North Long Beach is because we worked together to make it happen.

I want to keep working with you. I ask for your vote so we can continue to build a Long Beach for everyone.
